Dear Author(s),

Thank you for submitting your revised version.
However, the response letter is not attached to your e-mail.

To clarify the revised points, authors have a duty to submit the response letter.
Otherwise, the reviewers will be confused.
This is a general form of paper reviews in international journals.
There is no format for the response letter.

Best regards,

IJIES Editors: ijies@inass.org

Dear

IJIES Editors: ijies@inass.org

We hereby inform you that we have made changes/additions in accordance with the valuable suggestions of both reviewers and editors

1. The language structure, grammar, and typos have been revised from our manuscript using professional tools. Changes/additions to language structure, grammar, and typos can be seen in the comments on the file that we include in the email. The comments describe which sentences have been changed/revised by showing the original sentence before it was changed/revised.

2. Sentences highlighted in blue in the manuscript that we have included in the email indicate the revisions/additions that we have made in accordance with the suggestions of the reviewers and editors.

Hopefully what we have done is intended of what the reviewers and editors wanted. We hope our article meets the requirements of the International Journal of Intelligent Engineering and Systems.

Thank you very much for your attention and kindness.

Sincerely yours

Moch. Syahrir
